WHAT I WANT MY CHURCH TO BE

Two decades ago, I authored the following little poem, and, on that Sunday, shared it with the church. There were a few smiles and nods but after repeating the four lines three or four times throughout the sermon there were a disproportionate number of frowns and question- marked faces. Here it is:

*WHAT I WANT
MY CHURCH TO BE
I MUST BE CONSISTENTLY!*

I remember the brother who very seldomly brought his Bible to church seemed not to reflect an agreement of "amen" to the poem. Also, the sister who, more times than not, would tell others what she did "not like" than what she did like...well, the four-part wording provided her with additional fodder for her negativity! Yikes!

However, God's heavenly inspiration often calls us to be consistent in commitment! "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord." (I Corinthians 15:58) "We shall reap if we don't grow weary." (Galatians 6:9)

Now, twenty years later, I repeat the question to myself, asking, "just how consistent am I?"

You know?

I know!

We know!
