

Earl “Chuck” Wyeth, originally from Alliance, Ohio, serves as the preacher and minister of the Casa Grande Church of Christ. With more than fifteen years of experience in preaching, youth and family ministry, pastoral care, and community outreach, Chuck has dedicated his life to sharing the Gospel, strengthening congregations, and encouraging spiritual growth through biblical teaching and servant leadership.

Raised in the church and grounded in a commitment to New Testament Christianity, Chuck received ministry training through Sunset International Bible Institute and earned both undergraduate and graduate degrees in Bible and Christian Ministry through Amridge University. Throughout the years, he has served congregations and outreach efforts in Ohio, Texas, Pennsylvania, Nebraska, Iowa, New Mexico, and now Arizona. His ministry experience includes both preaching and youth and family ministry roles with the Kelton Church of Christ, Harvest Field Church of Christ, Westside Church of Christ, and the Church of Christ at Belen before accepting the work in Casa Grande.

In addition to congregational ministry, Chuck is the founder and Executive Director of Icky's Youth Center, a nonprofit outreach focused on mentoring, encouragement, and positive support for young people and families. His background also includes Christian education, nonprofit leadership, pastoral counseling, chaplaincy training, and community outreach initiatives. He is especially passionate about discipleship, strengthening families, and helping churches remain grounded in biblical truth, unity, and compassionate service.

Chuck is currently pursuing board certification in chaplaincy through Clinical Pastoral Education International, continuing advanced training in pastoral care, spiritual assessment, and compassionate ministry presence. He is also a speaker and co-author of several Christian books and ministry resources centered on discipleship, perseverance, spiritual growth, and practical Christian living.

Alongside his congregational and community work, Chuck actively uses platforms such as Facebook and TikTok to share biblical encouragement and devotional content. His “Two-Minute Timeout for God” weekly devotional videos continue reaching individuals and families with short, Scripture-centered messages focused on faith, perseverance, family, and everyday Christian living.

Chuck and his wife Linda have been married for 28 years and will celebrate their 29th wedding anniversary on June 9, 2026. Together they have raised three children: Sierra (25), Bryce (24), and Brad (22). Faith, family, and ministry have always remained closely connected in their lives, and they are grateful for the opportunity to begin this new chapter of service with the church family in Casa Grande.

Chuck’s ministry philosophy is rooted in biblical truth, unity in Christ, servant leadership, and helping people grow closer to Christ through faithful biblical teaching, compassion, grace, and genuine relationships. He looks forward to serving alongside the Casa Grande Church of Christ and meeting the spiritual and practical needs of both the congregation and the surrounding community.

Chuck, his family, and the church family at Casa Grande Church of Christ warmly invite you to join them in worship. If you have any questions or would like more information about the congregation and its ministries, please feel free to contact the church.
