Two Minute Timeout For God – Episode 10

IT'S NOT TOO LATE

By Chuck Wyeth

Maybe you are reading today and thinking, “I have already messed up too much;” “I have made too many mistakes;” I can’t undo the past.”

But listen carefully. . .

God specialized in restoration!

Joel 2:25 reminds us: “I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten. . .”

That does not mean God erases every consequence. It means God can redeem what we thought was beyond repair.

Start today!

Lower you voice.

Choose gentleness.

Speak life instead of criticism.

Ask forgiveness when you are wrong.

Pray together.

Be present.

Because when parents are willing to change. . .families can begin to heal.

Your past may explain where you have been. But through God’s grace, it does not have to determine where you go.

PRAYER: “Lord, redeem what I cannot undo restore what I have damaged, and help me become the parent You have called me to be.

News & Notes

TINA STEWART came forward last Lord's Day, asking for prayers for her strength in her relationship with God. She also is asking to place membership here with the Casa Grande congregation. Her address is 595 West Crowned Dove Trail, Casa Grande AZ 85122.

STACY ROGERS had eye surgery scheduled on Thursday. Please keep her in your prayers.

DEVON JACKSON is having some testing done for his seizures (Vasovagal Reflex). Please keep him and his family in your prayers.

WYNONA GARRET is still unable to walk and is in the process of healing a fractured disk from her fall.

It was good to have BETSY UPCHURCH with us for worship again. God is good.

Daily Prayers: TIM COZBY, DAVE and JOAN DAVIS
