

Casa Grande CHURCH OF CHRIST

Welcomes You!

DAVID DUANE DAVIS

July 22, 1946 – August 7, 2026

Dave Davis was born in Florence, Arizona. He lived the majority of his life in Arizona, ending his life on earth in Casa Grande.

Dave worked in construction, traveling to different jobs. Then he met the love of his life, Joan. They got married January 15, 1970. Dave and Joan had two children: Wesley and Kindra.

He loved going fishing, and he loved horses, enjoyed calf roping and loved going to rodeos. Joan says they went to a rodeo. They were enjoying all the hustle and bustle that goes on there. But then she noticed Dave was not sitting next to her. But she had no idea where he went. The announcer said they would begin the bareback bronc riding and the first rider would be DAVE DAVIS. The horse came out of the chute, and Dave's face hit the ground very soon after. Dave did not try bronc riding again.

Dave had several jobs after he retired from construction. He was a poker dealer at a casino, he was a security guard, and he even drove a school bus. Most of all Dave loved story-telling. He entertained the children and he shared stories of his life with anyone listening.

Dave also shared stories from the Bible and his relationship with God. He became a Christian early in his life and never left it. And on August 7, 2026 David Duane Davis went on to his new home, to be with the God he loved.

Don't Let Anger Lead the Conversation

By Chuck Wyeth

“Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires.” – James 1:19-20

Have you ever let anger speak for You? Most of us have. Something is said, emotions rise, and before we know it, we have responded in a way we wish we could take back.

The problem isn't always that we become angry. Anger is an emotion we all experience. The real danger comes when we allow our anger to take control of the conversation.

James gives us a simple, but powerful pattern: be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to become angry.

Notice the order: Listen first. Speak second. Let anger wait.

That's not always easy. When we are upset, we naturally want to defend ourselves, prove our point or make sure the other person knows exactly how we feel. But James reminds us that human anger does not produce the righteousness God desires.

Sometimes the strongest thing we can do is not saying more. Sometimes it is being quiet long enough to pray and allow God to shape our response.

The next time you feel anger beginning to lead a conversation, pause for a moment. Ask yourself whether what you are about to say will reflect your emotions—or reflect Christ.

Challenge question: Is Christ leading my conversation---or is my anger?

Prayer: Father, help me to be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to become angry. Give me patience before I respond, and let my conversations reflect Jesus. In His name, amen.

This has been your Two-Minute Timeout for God.

I love Y'all,

Chuck Wyeth

News & Notes

SYMPATHY

Our sympathy goes out to the family of our brother, DAVID DAVIS. Dave passed away Friday, August 7, 2026.

We also send sympathy to CLEO WISE and the Wise family. Jim (Cleo's brother-in-law) passed away recently.

Prayers are requested for the brother of DANIEL UNTERSEE, who lost his wife recently. He lives in Wisconsin.

CHARLIE STEPHENSON'S wife, SHIRLEY, has been put on hospice. Please keep them in your prayers.

LAVERNE JACKSON is sending a special "Thank You" to her niece, LAKEESHA NEIGHBORS, for bringing food to the family during her recent upset. She would also like to thank everyone for their calls and concerns. God is Good!

DeVaughn Jackson has an appointment with a neurologist on August 17. Please keep this family in your prayers.

Others we want to keep in our daily prayers are WYNONA GARRETT, TIM COZBY, DEVAUGHN JACKSON, and BETSY UPCHURCH.
