Speak With Grace

Colossians 4:6

By Chuck Wyeth

Truth Matters. But so does how we communicate it. Colossians 4:6 tells us:

"Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone."

Godly communication isn't just about saying the right thing. It's about saying the right thing the right way.

Grace does not mean avoiding the truth. And it certainly does not mean changing the truth. Grace means speaking truth with kindness, patience, and love.

Sometimes we can be right in what we say but wrong in how we say it. Our words should point people toward Christ, not push them away from Him.

So before you speak today, ask yourself:

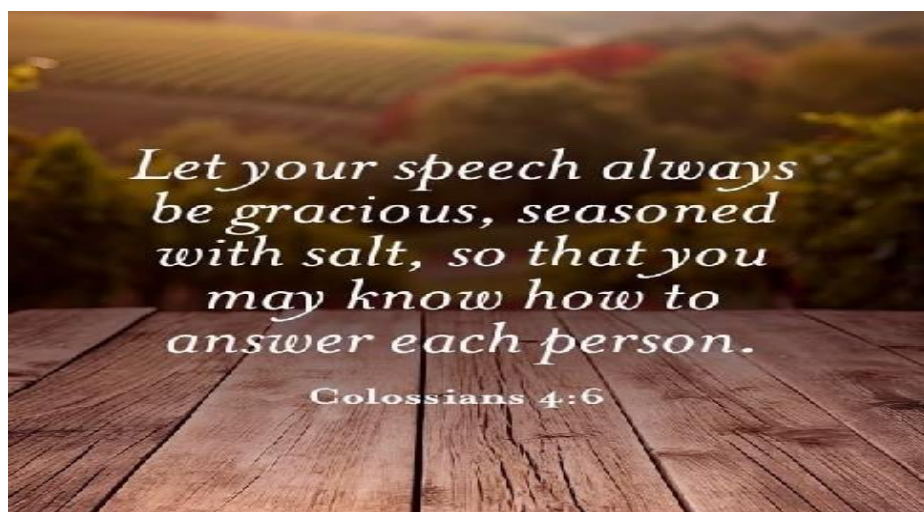

Am I just trying to prove my point, or am I trying to represent Christ?

Challenge Question: Would people describe my words as gracious?

Prayer: Father, let my words be seasoned with grace. Help me speak truth with kindness so others can see Christ through me. In Jesus' name, Amen.

This has been your Two-Minute Timeout for God. Have a blessed day!

Dear Casa Grande Church of Christ,

It is with great sadness that I must say goodbye. I want to thank the members for making me feel welcome and wanted. For all those who helped me after my injury, I am especially grateful. I have enjoyed my worship time here, and I'm brokenhearted that my time here is coming to an end. I will be leaving for Sweet Home Alabama this Thursday, and I would appreciate your prayers. Thanks again for all the great memories. My Alabama address is: 74 Polkville Drive, Apt 306, Anniston AL 36205; Phone (256) 458-6634. Please feel free to call or drop me a not anytime. I love you all and wish you all the best.
