Two-Minute Timeout for God

Commitment & Consistency – Part 4

When Missing Becomes a Pattern

By Chuck Wyeth

Philippians 2:3-4 (ESV)

> "Do nothing from selfish ambition or conceit, but in humility count others more significant than yourselves. Let each of you look not only to his own interests, but also to the interests of others."

Sometimes we get so busy with our own lives that we stop noticing one another. Someone isn't there. Then they aren't there again.

Someone get quiet. Someone starts pulling away. And before long. . .

Missing becomes a pattern.

Paul reminds us that Christianity is not just about me. We are supposed to be looking out for one another. That means we notice. We care. We check in.

Sometimes a simple. . .

"Hey, I missed you. Are you doing okay?"

. . .can mean more than we realize.

Challenge Question:

Who haven't I seen lately – and have I cared enough to reach out?

Prayer:

"Father, open my eyes to the people around me. Help me notice when someone may be struggling or drifting, and give me the love to reach out. Amen."

This has been your Two-Minute Timeout with God. Have a blessed day!
