Two-Minute Timeout for God

Commitment & Consistency – Part 7

Am I Becoming Lukewarm?

By Chuck Wyeth

Revelation 3:15-16, 19 (ESV)

> "I know your works: you are neither cold nor hot. . .So, because you are lukewarm. . .I will spit you out of my mouth."
>
> "Those whom I love, I reprove and discipline, so be zealous and repent."

Those are strong words from Jesus. But sometimes we need strong words. There is danger in becoming comfortable with:

> Just enough Christianity
>
> Just enough prayer,
>
> Just enough worship,
>
> Just enough Bible study,
>
> Just enough commitment,
>
> Just enough to convince ourselves everything is okay.

But Jesus did not call us to give Him whatever is left over. He called us to follow Him.

Christianity should not be something we try to fit into our lives. It should be the very foundation upon which we build our lives.

And do not miss verse 19. Jesus corrects because He loves. So when God's Word shows us something that needs to change. . .Change it.

Challenge Question:

> Have I become comfortable, casual, or even lukewarm in my walk with Christ?

Prayer: "Father, show me where I have become comfortable or inconsistent. Correct me where I need correction, and help me follow You with a committed heart. Amen."

This has been your Two-Minute Timeout with God. Have a blessed day!
